Crochet Baby Booties

Something about me ...

Dear crocheter, hello!

People say, that a lot of time spent only with yourself makes you find out who you really are. I discovered crocheting years ago. At first I was only admiring little crochet things made for babies, but then I became curious and wanted to try crocheting by myself. It was a new way to fill up my free time. With every finished product I have made, my passion only grew bigger and that led me to the point I'm standing today.

Each pattern contains lots of love, time and effort, so do not copy this pattern and sell or post it as your own. Also do not republish photos as your own, but feel free to share my facebook page and links to the patterns.

Love, Lara
